

News Releases

July 9, 2009

BPEG Reactor received an order to supply AC air core filter reactors for Los Angeles Department of Water and Power (LADWP)'s Intermountain HVDC transmission upgrade from ABB (Click here for details). The order consists of 21 units with 6 spares and it was expected to deliver to the site by January, 2010.

June 26, 2009

BPEG Reactor was awarded order for +-500kV HVDC expansion project between Shanghai and the Three-Gorge Hydro by the China State Grid. 149 units of air core reactors will be supplied in this contract and it was expected to deliver to the site by January,2010

June 6, 2009

BPEG Reactor won a contract to supply smoothing reactors for +-600kv HVDC transmission line, a total of 35 reactor units. The under-construction 600 kV HVDC line is in north of China and it was expected to deliver to the site by June, 2010

BPEG Reactor is the biggest air core reactor manufacturer in the world and BPEG reactor line for HVDC application covers all the way up to 800kV smoothing reactors.